

iManage Partners Providing Work 10 Solutions for Small to Medium Businesses

The services you need. The low, fixed price you want.

One Stop Solution

User-centric solutions for successful DMS deployments.

After buying your Work Product Management solution, look to iManage and iManage partners for all the services necessary for a successful and well-adopted implementation. These four partners have come together to offer combined, complementary services addressing end-user aspects of project implementation: desktop deployment, adoption/ training, and end-user support. The packages are tiered to meet your requirements and by working together, you will experience a seamless transition from stage to stage, reducing duplicative work. With each of these best-of-breed partners, small to medium sized firms will get top quality for a fixed fee for cost certainty.
